FOR THE VIOLIN STUDIO OF DAWN LINDSAY

www.dawnlindsayviolin.com (Coming Soon!)

Fall in love with these local performances!

I'm involved in a few upcoming performances in town that I would encourage you to enjoy if you're able to! Tickets available at CenterTix.

Anchorage Symphony Orchestra: Opening Night!

Saturday, September 23, 8:00 pm, PAC

The season opens with a rollicking potpourri of student drinking songs! Brahms' Academic Festival Overture was a thank you "note" to the University of Breslau for presenting him with an honorary doctorate. Sean Chen, the charismatic winner of the 2013 American Pianists Awards and Van Cliburn Medalist, performs Beethoven's bold Piano Concerto No. 5 ("Emperor"). The evening closes with Tchaikovsky's majestic and rousing Symphony No. 5.

Anchorage Festival of Music The Reformed Pirate: Scenes from Eight Baroque Operas

Saturday, September 30, 4pm, Private Residence and Sunday, October 1, 4pm, Private Residence

A pastiche of eight scenes from baroque operas woven together to tell a new – but familiar – tale of love, jealousy, madness, storms, pirates, and a jolly good happy ending! With music by baroque masters Handel, Rameau, Marais, Purcell, and more.

Advanced Students Masterclass

I will be offering a master class for the advanced students in the studio on Sunday, September 24th from 2-3:30 pm at the studio.

This is specifically for the following students:

Ashley, Charlie, Jerry, Kyla, Lily, Abbi, Samantha, Jake, Harrison, Ryan, Torsten, Alison, Jessica, Hahni, and Faith.

I will follow up with you all in a separate email.

Please RSVP by email and bring $15 cash or check (free for UAA Students), a polished solo to play for everyone, and a music stand. Master classes are a fantastic opportunity to get feedback and gain confidence in your solo performance skills, so take advantage of this one!

SuperStrings needs Violinists!

The SuperStrings program is sponsored by the Suzuki Association of Southcentral Alaska (SASA). This group performs repertoire from the standard educational string orchestra literature while learning the skills needed for excellent orchestral citizenship with an emphasis on teamwork and leadership development. Even though they have already started rehearsals, they are low on violinists and would love to have people start late! For more information please see the flyer attached to this email. [SuperStrings_2017Flyer.pdf]
